The Miracle Of Rain

The great companion of the Prophet ﷺ, Anas bin Malik ؓ said that one day a man entered the Prophet's masjid on a Friday.

He came through a door that was facing the pulpit while the Messenger of Allah was giving the khutbah. Then he stood in front of the Prophet ﷺ and asked him to pray for rain as the livestock were dying and the roads were cut off.

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ raised both his hands and said "Oh Allah! Bless us with rain! Oh Allah! Bless us with rain! Oh Allah! Bless us with rain!"

The companions couldn't see any clouds in the sky. Then a heavy cloud like a shield appeared from behind the mountains of Sala. When it reached the middle of the sky, it spread out and then rained. Anas ؓ said "By Allah, we couldn't see the sun for a week!"

The next Friday a man entered through the same gate when the Prophet ﷺ was giving the khutbah and informed him that the livestock were dying and the roads were cut off. He asked the Messenger of Allah to pray for the rain to stop. So He ﷺ raised both his hands and said "Oh Allah! (Send) the rain on the plateaus, on the mountains, on the hills in the valleys and on the places where the trees grow." So the rain stopped and the Companions came out walking in the sun.

WAYS TO USE THIS resource

Children develop at such different rates. Some develop keen understanding a long time before they show writing readiness and others can write well whilst their reading fluency requires further development.

Here are just 3 suggested ways you can use this resource with your children at different stages. Of course, you know your child best and can adapt it best to their needs.

Stage 1

Read the passage aloud to your child.

Tell them to raise their hand when they don't know a word.

At the end invite them to ask questions.

Then ask them to retell it in their own words.

Then ask the questions that are appropriate to your child from the worksheet.

Either accept oral answers or write their answers for them to copy.

Stage 2

Day 1: The child reads the passage to you the first day.

Day 2: See how much of the passage the child reads to you in 2 minutes. Note it in the tracker. Answer the 1st question page.

Day 3: See how much of the passage the child reads to you in 2 minutes. Note it in the tracker. Answer the 2nd question page.

Day 4: Read passage for 2 mins, Note progress in tracker.

Stage 3

Day 1: Independent reading and completion of worksheet pages.
