

Give your kids the best child role models , *

scroll to look inside

Want to teach your kids about the Companions of the Prophet

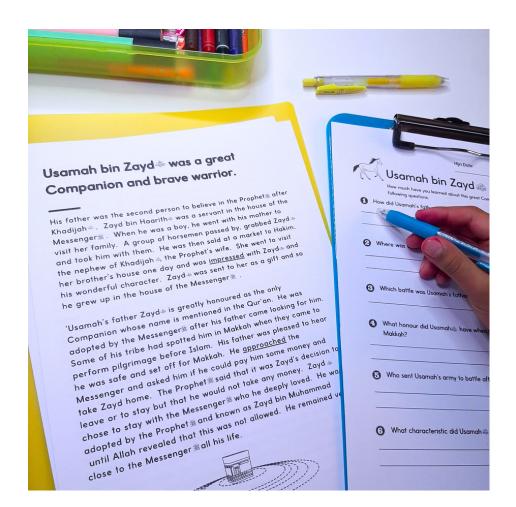

but the resources you've found are: full of tricky language require a lot of explanation

not appealing or relatable to kids

That's why I created: The Child Sahaba Series

Give them the best role models with a resource especially designed for kids

What do you get?

Sa'eed bin Al-Aast was a great Companion and generous believer.

Sa'eed's father Al-Aas was an important man from the Quraysh tribe of Makkah. He was very angry when the Prophetﷺ began calling people to Islam. He would continually try to harm the Muslims as he wanted them to worship idols like him. Eventually the Muslims left Makkah and journeyed to Madinah where they were welcomed by the Muslims there. The Quraysh were furious and when the armies were due to meet at the battle of Badr, the leaders of the Quraysh were eager to fight and certain they would win. Al-Aas was one of the 1000 fighters that were defeated by only 300 Muslims. He was killed by Ali bin Abi Talib.

Sa'eed 🞄 was born around the time when hijrah from Makkah to Madinah took place. He was a small child when his father died. Instead of being angry with the Muslims for killing his father, he had a natural love of the truth and believed in Allah and his Messengerﷺ. As a boy he bravely travelled to the Messenger join him and learn from him.

The Messenger of Allah 紫 was blessed with knowledge from A that Sa'eed & would grow to be a very generous man. A wom came to the Messenger of Allah% and said "I want to give th cloak to the most generous of the Arabs. Heﷺ said "Give it this boy" meaning Sa'eed bin Al-Aas & who was standing th He was less that 10 years old when this happened.

Answer keys

Weeks of activities

- A biography per Companion
- Worksheets for each level
- Questions that develop reading skills
- A fun review pack to consolidate

Take a closer look!

Simple language designed for kids

Consistent format for each biography pack stement was proved true in lots of ways. Sa'eed bin Al-Aas∞ was a great Companion and generous believer. d's father Al-Aas was an important man from the Quraysh id's tather Al-Aas was an important man trom the yuraysn of Makkah. He was very angry when the Prophet≸ began he face of the earth of Makkah. He was very angry when the Prophet≋ begaining people to Islam. He would continually try to harm the calling people to Islam. He would continually try to narm me Muslims as he wanted them to worship idols like him. Eventually r asked him. Muslims as he wanted them to worship idols like him. Eventually the Muslims left Makkah and journeyed to Madinah where they d write a note pro the Muslims left Makkah and journeyed to Madinan where the furious were welcomed by the Muslims there. The Quraysh were fade the were welcomed by the Muslims there. The Quraysh were furious and when the armies were due to meet at the battle of Badr, the leaders of the Quraysh were eager to fight and certain they leaders of the Quraysh were eager to tight and certain the would win. Al-Aas was one of the 1000 fighters that were would win. Al-Aas was one of the 1000 fighters that were defeated by only 300 Muslims. He was killed by Ali bin Abi Talib&: Sa'eed a was born around the time when hijrah from Makkah to a eea ∞ was porn arouna me nime wnen nijran trom Makkan to Madinah took Place. He was a small child when his father died. Instead of being grant with the Mueling for killing his father b Maginan Took Place. He was a small child when his father, he Instead of being angry with the Muslims for killing his father, he Instead of being angry with the Muslims for Killing his rather had a natural love of the truth and believed in Allah and his naa a natural love of the truth and believed in Allan and his Messenger焉 . As a boy he bravely travelled to the Messenger焉to enger of Allahﷺ was blessed with knowledge from Allah enger of Allan was plessed with Knowledge Holl Allan A ioin him and learn from him. eed would grow to be a very generous man. A womat came to the Messenger of Allah% and said "I want to give this is to the Messenger of Allah% and said "I want to give it to the to the most generous of the Arabs. Her said "Give it to examples of Sa'eed's generosity and kindness. to him "Oh, boy! Give me five hundred." He "ive hundred what?" he replied "Five a gave it to him, then the Bedouin began to his hand and weep." Sa'eed & asked him lied "I weep, by Allah, that I should not always nave give it > ther his brothers on Fridays, feed would also send purses of money have a lot of people in need. He om someone who was experiencing king for help or with debts to pay the caliph Mu'awiyah who told Ip him with his charity. Sa'eed ad to feed the hungry, help urs and friends and free > > nerosity, his great also famous. He was made ist those he was persistence uslim army during nattab and Uthman bin hen he was attacked in vere surrounded.

Biographies to suit their understanding and reading level

Events from the seerah naturally integrated

A review page for each companion

Different worksheet formats to engage learners

Review pages to revise all the companions at once

Easy to complete independently

Use this resource in so many ways!

Islamic Studies

This is a perfect resource for teaching about the sahaba in your Islamic Studies lessons.

S

English Lessons

The biographies make great reading comprehensions or reading material.

Holiday Project

Make holidays beneficial with this special themed unit.

Read-alouds

Use the biographies to read-aloud to your children. Great for homeschool or bedtime!

Try for free!

Download a free resource pack which teaches about the status and importance of Mothers of the Believers

or visit

teachmeislam.org/mothers

VIRTUES AND STATUS OF THE MOTHERS OF THE BELIEVERS

